FOR BEAT PRODUCTION

Special to The Tribune

LEHI, Utah, May 5.—George Austin, field superintendent for the Utah Sugar ompany, has returned from a two weeks' visit to Garland, Sugar City and Idaho Falls districts and visited the new cut-Falls districts and visited the new cutting station at Leland. He reports the young beets coming up and says that this season will produce the most perfect stands ever obtained. This condition is attributed to the beneficent spring rains. There are now planted 12,500 acres for the Lehi and Garland factoriest 950 acres for the Lehi and Garland factoriest 950 acres for the former plant. There will be 1000 more acres for Garland than were grown inst year, but by reason of the experience of the farmers Mr. Austin anticipates that the tonnage will be doubled.

Garland is growing rapidly and new familles are moving in daily. The sugar company has built twenty cottages, which it is selling to its employees at but a little above cost on long-time installments. Around each cottage the company has also planted a small orchard and shade trees.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY AGAINST BOHNY

Special to The Tribune.

MANTI, Utah, May 15.-The State developed most of its case against Bohny yesterday before the court took its ad journment. The most important witness was Abram Day, a cousin to Bohny. He testified that early in the evening he had been called from the Crout saloon by Marshal Bohny to help "pull" Empey in the Colvin saloon; that Bonny gave him a gun and they went together with guns drawn to arrest Empey.

drawn to arrest Empey.

When Empey was commanded to follow Bohny he refused to be locked up, but suggested a bend for his appearance. He was told to appear next merning and Bohny left and went to a dance then in progress at the town hall. Later Empey and Day also went to the dance and, after dancing some time, started back to the saloon together. As they left the dance Bohny followed them a short distance. Empey walked down the sidewalk talking about Bohny. As they neared the corner Empey, speaking to Day, sold, "I don't see why Joe (meaning Bohny) dogs me around. I've got nothing against him."

Immediately Bohny, who had in the meantime almost caught up with his cousin and Empey, exclaimed:

"Then why did you hit me in the galoon tonight?"

At this, according to the witness, Empey

onight?"
At this, according to the witness, Empey commenced to laugh and started to say something, when Bohny shot twice in apid succession and immediately ran way. Empey did not speak, but fell to the round dead, and as Bohny left Day exisimed: "You coward, what did you shoot him

"You coward, what our you show that for?"

He tried to raise Empey, who seemed quite dead, having never spoken after the first shot. No weapons were found upon or around Empey.

The State has but a few witnesses to examine The defense will plead justification and self-defense.

Day was an unwilling witness for the State and clearly did all he could to shield Bohny.

Judge Boothe will hold court here to morrow. He is to try a case in which Judge Johnson is defendant.

No further developments have been made in the matter over which Judge Johnson and District Attorney Livingston clashed the other day Judge Johnson has not yet divulged the source of the information upon which he based his statement, and it is generally believed that the judge intends to let the matter drop.

Attorneys attending court here are in-crested in the judicial fight in the Third interfect. Upon the arrival of the mail in daily papers are eagerly scanned for nformation. The attorneys all seem eager for Judge Morris' renomination and feel hat Judge Lewis should have another erm.

IMPORTANT RULING IN FOREST RESERVE CASE

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, May 15 .- An important ruiing relative to the lands selected by the State Land Commissioners, and situated within the forest reserve, was made this week by Ferest Supervisor A. W. Jensen. The lands in question have been filed upon by a number of citizens of the State and the applications have been approved by the State Board of Land Commisby the State Board of Land Commissioners. However, the Secretary of the Interior has not passed title to these lands. The ruling of the Supervisor not o allew the applicants for patents any grazing privileges on their claims within the forest reserve is based on the fact that the State seems not to have the abosolute title to the lands in question until the Secretary of the Interior has granted the title to the State.

The ruling has caused considerable agitation and the case may be tried in court to determine the merits of the applicants claims.

claims. In one instance the Oregon Short Line Railway company has flied on nearly 72,-606 acres of land. The land was taken for its valuable coal deposits and is sit-uated in the grazing district of the re-uated in the grazing district of the reserve.

Several local sheep and cattle men secured rights from the rallway company to use its land, 72,000 acres, as pasturage ground this season. Owing to the ruling that permission to cross the range with herds of cattle must be granted through the Supervisor's office, the lessees were unable to reach the ground belonging to the rallway company. The parties asked permission from the Supervisor to cross the range, but were informed that the Department would control the grazing on all lands within the reserve, to which an absolute title had not passed to the State from the United States Government.

The Supervisor's ruling will affect many holders of lands which are unpatented and unapproved by the Secretary of the Interior. There are many selections of lands within the reserve made by the State of Utah which are unpatented. It is estimated that several hundred thousand acres selected by the State Land Commissioners will be practically taken back by the Department, and no claim to any lands within the reserve will be honored by the Supervisor unless said claim has been passed by the Secretary of the Interior.

The approval by the State Land Commissioners are passed by the Secretary of the Interior.

open passed by the Secretary of the In-terior.

The approval by the State Land Com-missioners, upon which the applicants base their rights to use the grounds as grazing land, will, through this ruling, be callusters.

grazing land, will, through this ruling, be valueless.

The lands affected by the decision are located in the reserve as follows: Township 17 S., R. 6 E., Twp. 16 S., R. 7 E., Twp. 18 S., R. 8 E. Twp. 18 S., R. 7 E., The enabling act admitting Utah as a State, section 13, roads that all lands granted in quantity or indemnity by the act shall be selected, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, from the unappropriated public lands of the United States, within the limits of the State of Utah.

In the case of Roberts vs. Gebhart et al. (California), the court says, in referring to the case of Buhne vs. Chism: "We think that the approval of the Secretary of the Interior was essential to a valid selection and location by the State, and that it was incumbent upon the plaintiff to show affirmatively that the Secretary of the Interior had approved said selection and location."

to show affirmatively that the Secretary of the Interior had approved said selection and location."

In the case of Miles vs. Wells ot al. (Utah), the court said. "Under chapter 64, Session Laws of 1879, after the application for said fand is made, until the selection is made, and the price to be paid and the time in which the deferred payments shall be made, or fixed by the beard and assented to by the applicant and a contract of sale containing stipulations agreed upon is executed, the applicant has no vested right whatever."

Supervisor Jensen, under these decisions, holds that claimants of said lands within the reserve, their lesses or lessees, have no authority to regulate the grazing of sheep, cattle or horses on said lands unless it can be affirmatively proved that the Secretary of the linterior has approved the selection of land made by the State. The grazing on such unapproved or unpatented lands, or crossing over any part of the reserve to such lands without permits from the Supervisor's office will be regarded as trespass. The Supervisor is directed by the Commissioner of the Gendral Land Office to carry out this decision by Injunctions if necessary.

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF TRYING URDEAL

Special to The Tribune. PROVO, Utah, May 16 -- Last evening Miss Ida Boshard was the victim of pecultur experiences

About 8 o'clock Ida went shopping, having previously obtained a small check from County Recorder Pyne, in whose office she has been engaged for some time

About 19 o'clock she was returning home when a man was observed following her. The intruder finally stepped up and tapping her on the shoulder insisted on escorting her home. This she indignantly declined.

declined.

On arriving at Second East street Miss Boshard threatened to call the police if he insisted further in his unwelcome imposition. At this juncture he drew his pistol and clutched the lady by the arm, demanding silence and otherwise threatening her, using indecent language.

Becoming alarmed, the holdup left the frightened young woman, who hastened to a friend and related her adventure. She was almost prostrated by fright.

Members of Naval Academy Thrown Into Water, and Midshipman Is Drowned.

NNAPOLIS, Md., May 15 .- Midshipman Philip Brittingham of Wheeling, W. Va., a member of the third class of the naval academy, was drowned about two miles from the naval academy this afternoon The young man left the academy docl in a sailing launch with Midshipmen Anderson, Henderson, Towers and Ste-venson, all of the third class. The boat was without centerboard or air tanks, and being caught by a gust of wind expsized and sank almost immediately. The five young men struggled in the water for about twenty minutes before succor reached them from another academy boat containing several other midshipmen. As the rescuing sailboat came near ores were thrown to the struggling men, but Midshipman Brit-lingham was unable to grasp his. Mid-shipman C. T. Blackburn, who was in ne second boat, plunged overboard and his heroic attempt to rescue his drowning classmate, was dragged un-der. Both came to the surface, and Midshipman R. R. Stewart bravely went to Blackburn's assistance. Their combined efforts proved unavailing, and Brittingham sank in seventeen feet of water. The other four midshipmen were picked up, and the rescuers dove overboard in repeated but unsuccessful efforts to find the body. Midshipman Brittingham was 19 years of age and a son of Rev.
